

Missio Scotland Volunteer Opportunities

"Give to Where the Needs Are Greatest!"

Missio Scotland is the Scottish branch of the Pontifical Mission Societies and is the official mission aid agency of the Catholic Church, continuing the mission of Jesus Christ in the world. By giving us a helping hand during your spare time—even if it's just a few hours a year—you can make a valuable contribution to supporting the Pope's Charity.

Faith is no refuge
for the faint-
hearted, but something that enhances our lives. It makes us aware of a magnificent calling, the
vocation of love.
POPE FRANCIS

- 1. Raffle volunteer: You could hold a monthly raffle and donate the money raised to one of Missio Scotland's many projects, from supporting Providence

Home for Disabled Girls in Zambia to the training of priests in Papua New Guinea.

- 2. Football card volunteer: You could contact Missio Scotland to receive a football card and raise funds while having a bit of fun at the same time!

- 3. Host a fundraising event e.g. a coffee morning: Why not host a coffee morning in your place of work, church hall or local community centre?

- 4. Community Ambassador: You could raise awareness of the Pope's Charity by inspiring your family, friends, colleagues and online networks to support Missio Scotland sharing information about Missio through social media or by giving short talks on the charity and work of Missio to a variety of community groups

- 5. University Student Ambassador: Share information with other university students about Missio Scotland and raise funds for our projects by hosting fun events with your fellow scholars!

6. Primary school Missio Champion: Become a Missio Champion and take the lead in your primary school in raising funds for Missio or by presenting to classes and at assemblies. We even have our Missio Champion Badges for you to wear showing that you are a proud member of the Pope's Charity!

7. Secondary school Missio Ambassador:

Learn about Missio Scotland's worldwide support of some of society's most vulnerable people and share this by leading school assemblies and in PSE and RE lessons.

8. Parish: Become a parish contact and promote Missio Scotland within your local community especially during Mission Month in October.

"Charity is at the heart of the Church, it is the reason for its action, the soul of its mission." Pope Francis

I cannot do everything; but still I can do something and
because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something
I can do.
