

The funds donated to Missio Scotland go towards helping people in all five continents and every penny given to us can make a huge difference to the lives of people worldwide. With that in mind, why not fill in this map of India with any coins you have and then send it to us? Also why not try and learn a bit more about India and decorate the area surrounding the map with drawings or clippings related to the country itself?

